

Using Children’s Literature to Promote Social Emotional Development Activity

Use what you have learned in this lesson to identify ways to support staff members as they promote social-emotional development. Find a few of these books in your program’s library. Review the book and brainstorm ways you might suggest staff members could use the book to promote social-emotional development for the children in their program.

Examples of activities linked with books about feelings
	Book Title	Author	Activities
Infant/Toddler	Baby Faces: Smile!	Roberta Grobel Intrater
Preschool	The way I feel	Jana Cain
Preschool	Glad Monster, Sad Monster	Ed Emberley & Anne Miranda

School-Age	Goggles! The Junkyard Wonders Feathers	Ezra Jack Keats Patricia Polloco Jacqueline Woodson
------------	---	--	--